December Function: Site Visit – New Passenger “C-Train” for MTR

Saturday morning 17th December 2011

The MTR C-train is urban line train series procured to meet the rising passenger demand and the future need for line extensions. A total of 22 trains will be delivered and the first train has arrived Hong Kong in April 2011.

The train is designed and built by one of the biggest car builders of China, Changchun Railway Vehicles Co. Ltd. with the highest design and quality standards ever built in their factory. The train is of stainless steel car body with refreshing cab front and livery. The interior is equipped with 22” LCD displays and in-saloon CCTV for enhanced passenger service.

The visit will start with a short presentation to introduce the key design features of the C-train followed by a visit in the MTR depot to board on the C-train to appreciate in person the new train features.

Only paid-up members are eligible for this site visit.

The itinerary is as follows:

- 09:00 Assemble at Lobby on 2/F MTR Headquarter, Kowloon Bay
- 09:10 Introduction to New Passenger C-train for MTR
- 10:00 Moving to the Kowloon Bay Maintenance Depot (by walking)
- 10:10 Visit a MTR C-train under commissioning
- 11:30 End of the Visit
